JANIZARIES, OR JANISSARIES

This Turkish military force was first initiated by ORKHAN (1306-1359) the son & successor of OTHMAN (founder of the OTTOMAN TURK Empire), who levied a systematic tribute of young children from conquered Christian people. These tribute children were trained under Mohammedan guardianship and with Christian captives taken in war and Turkish subjects who were attracted by the special privileges offered them a special corps of picked troops, of many nationalities which became the backbone of the empire and a dictatorial power
